The crew surely were beyond wonderful. We absolutely loved them.

Food was excellent and there was so much of it. The breakfast display on the table was gorgeous and the eggs were native eggs that were so good and cooked perfectly. Food was paired with wine very well and the chef came out and explained everything ahead of time. It was a white glove service in the morning and black glove service in the evening. The chef used a lot of local fresh ingredients and explained what was in season and where things came from which was also an added advantage." May 2022
