CLASSICALLY INSPIRED CONTEMPORARY DESIGN

The 2005 Oceanco masterpiece was originally delivered as M/Y DILBAR and is now called M/Y AHS

Several refits, including a 16 month rebuild completed in 2018/2020 kept this jewel in flawless condition and in line with the latest trends. The rounded transom is a clear reference to the Golden Era, and it gives AHS its unique aesthetic. At 19-years old, the Yacht bears the signature of some of the most acclaimed names in the industry, including the late Alberto Pinto, who styled its vast interiors.

Under new ownership, a new era begins for the famous AHS.

INTERIOR

To say that this vessel provides generous accommodation would be an understatement. Up to 12 guests in 6 staterooms can enjoy cruising onboard, each one accommodated in lavish, ultra-elegant suites, while a huge 18-person crew takes hospitality to the highest level.

There are an additional 2 staff cabins on upper deck and a fabulous cinema room on main deck.

A voluminous interior with epic style, designed by the late Albert Pinto, offers guests an experience of being on a much larger yacht.

An aerial, high-angle photograph of a boat's wake in the ocean. The wake is a turbulent trail of white foam and dark water, extending from the top left towards the bottom right. The boat's hull and railings are visible in the upper left corner. The overall tone is dark and moody, with high contrast between the white foam and the deep blue/black water.
